On your assigned pep band performance, report to the band room at the call time listed above. All pep band members must be wearing the black pep band t-shirt for every event. Please be seated and ready to rehearse with your instrument, and pep band binder no later than 5 minutes following the call time. Prior to each performance, the pep band will warm up and rehearse four or five tunes in the band room.

Pep band members are required to sit in the Screamin' Eagle Section within your section of the band from the conclusion of the JV game until dismissed by the director during or after halftime. Students are to remain in the Varsity Gym during this time, and are not permitted back in the band room. Students will not be permitted in the auxiliary gym during any basketball game. Band members must return to their seats before the end of the 3rd quarter. This will allow the band to perform between the 3rd and 4th quarters. The pep band will play during 4th quarter time-outs, and we will always perform the school song at the end of each event. The ending time for each event depends completely on the pace of the basketball game (ie. fouls, free throws, time outs, over-time).

The attendance policy will allow ONE absence throughout the season. When a conflict arises, students must make an attempt to switch with another student in the same section from another pep band group. This must be documented when informing Mr. Landrum of an upcoming absence. See Mr. Landrum if more than ONE absence throughout the season could occur. There has been a good attempt on my part to prevent students from having pep events on back-to-back nights, and to maintain a balance between the groups. Students may participate in more than their assigned performances. Pep band should be a fun activity for everyone, but students will always be expected to be disciplined and be respectful.

See you at the games,

Mr. Landrum and Mr. Murray
